

To mark World Oceans Day, the United Nations and Oceana present:

Silent Fish

by Andreas Loukakos & Thodoris Chondrogiannos

In collaboration with: Ocean Week

Tuesday 8 June
7pm (CET)

Panellists

- Federico Gelmi - Fisherman in the film whose Associazione Pescatori di Pantelleria is a member of Low Impact Fishers of Europe (LIFE)
- Lefteris Arapakis - UNEP Young Champion of the Earth and founder of Enaleia
- Anne-Cécile Dragon - Science and policy officer, DG MARE, European Commission
- Nicolas Fournier - Campaign Director, Marine Protection at Oceana in Europe
- Miguel Bernal - Senior Fishery Officer, General Fisheries Commission for the Mediterranean - FAO

Moderator

- Dimitris Fatouros - UN Regional Information Centre
-

How to Participate

The event involves an online screening of the film #SilentFish, followed by a panel discussion.

Step 1: Register for the event before 8 June by clicking here:

Once you have registered, you will automatically receive a Zoom link.

Step 2: At 7pm (CET) on 8 June, click on the Zoom link to join the event.

After a short introduction, the link to the film will be shared. After watching the film, join us for the discussion.

Synopsis

The Mediterranean remains the most overfished sea on the planet, in the era of climate change. Traveling across the Mediterranean, the film captures the lives of fishermen who struggle to make ends meet and are at risk of becoming extinct.

Watch the trailer for #SilentFish by Anemon Prodcutions here.

OCEANA Protecting the World's Oceans

Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations

If you have any problems with the screening, please contact us at info@cineonu.org.

Please note that the United Nations do not necessarily endorse the views and opinions expressed in films screened at Ciné-ONU events